Bldy immigrants!!! Don't worry Kevin's got a plan!
A Mini-Epic filled with Love, Friendship and Treading Water...

English Immigration Guards and their boss Kevin Minchkin are mildly irritated, fairly disappointed and somewhat discontented. They have not caught any "illegals" in years. They are still working the nightshift, no promotion in sight.

Destination GB - a very serious and a very stupid look at immigration and illegality, and what happens when the mask of civility slips.

Working through clichés and stereotypes the company explores the themes of xenophobia and other demons encountered in Britain – the promised land for many.

Lost Banditos - a refreshing, new company brings a fast-paced, quirky show blending storytelling, clown, improvisation and chaos.

Brace yourself 'ENGELAND LAND'!

Bring your Passports, ids, credit cards, visa, maestro, solo...

You never know when you might need it!
