

As Loud As Silence
Lost Banditos Theatre
Directed by Kasia Zaremba
Devised by the Company

'We live in a moment of history where change is so speeded up that we begin to see the present only when it is already disappearing.'

'As Loud as Silence' tells an epic tale of a girl's search for her own voice.

This devised, physical show, with live band on stage, plays out a story of music, passion, love and madness - and perhaps a chicken or two...

Lost Banditos is a visual, physical theatre company that works with movement, storytelling, improvisation and clown work.

Supported by Adelman Foundation and Arts Council England.

Premiere in Portugal in February 2011

1 hour show (no interval)

Funded by:

Arts Council England

Adelman Foundation

St Mary's University

In Association with:

The Point, Eastleigh

Bicat & Co

Lost Banditos Theatre